

ACCOMMODATION NOTES

Properties in the Classic category are typically smaller hotels or luxurious B&Bs with very personal service sometimes including wine tasting or evening hors d'oeuvres

McMinnville: A'Tuscan Estate

Stay as guest of Erin Gilchrist at the A'Tuscan Estate in McMinnville. The 1928 colonial-style house is tastefully decorated in a European style and is located just five blocks from McMinnville's historic downtown. The grounds include gardens, porch and patio to relax in. The three-course breakfast features many locally-grown ingredients

McMinnville - Upgrade: Atticus Hotel

A hotel upgrade is available in McMinnville to the Atticus Hotel for $190 per room per night. See description.

A boutique hotel in the heart of McMinnville's historic downtown. Owner, Erin Stephenson has personally crafted each room using local artisans in a style she describes as, "a sexy spin on an Oregon vibe." Service is attentive and discrete. NOTE: the hotel does not have a restaurant for breakfast, so we provide vouchers for a nearby eatery

Welches: Mount Hood Oregon Resort

The Mount Hood Oregon Resort has recently completed a $14 million renovation – and it shows; from the guest rooms to the restaurant and lounge. There is also a full-service spa and Oregon's first golf course. There are a couple of restaurants on the property one of which overlooks the fairway

Hood River: Lodge 902

Lodge 902 B&B is a cozy, welcoming space in a beautiful Victorian house. Most rooms have rain showers and river views and there are nice common areas including a pleasant porch and a balcony. The property is just a few blocks from the restaurants & shops of the downtown area. Excellent breakfast in a room overlooking the Gorge.

Newberg: The Allison Inn & Spa The Inn is set among vineyards, orchards and rich, agricultural farmland in the northeast corner of Newberg. The rooms all have private balconies and there is a 15,000 square foot spa with 12 treatment rooms. The property is two miles from the center of Newberg but has an excellent restaurant. One of the best hotels in the Oregon!
